

THE FINANCE COUPLE™

— TWO PERSPECTIVES WITH ONE FOCUS... YOU —

Together

We all live here, we all need to get along

Being strong does not mean letting go of your truths

Being strong does not mean making others follow

Real strength is having the power to lead by example

And letting go of the temptation to fight for control

We can never forget that our lives are intertwined

What I do affects you just as what you do affects me

Remember you can go fast by yourself but not far if you're alone

Because what we do together is meaningful and lasts

And what we do together is so much more than the past

I implore you to keep the gift that keeps giving

That knowledge of time is the harbinger of living

A life full of love and reciprocal giving

Whether it's time talent treasure matters little to me

It's the gift of giving that comes from the heart

When you give of yourself and let go of your fear

And find peace among us rather than foster the hurt

Because we all still live here, we all still need to get along

We all still need each other, together

Merry Christmas, Happy Hanukkah, and Happy New Year!
